Our research is worth looking into.

Bold, state-of-the-art research that focuses on pushing boundaries and transforming lives is happening every day at UT Dallas. Our researchers, scientists and engineers relentlessly seek better treatments and cures for critical issues that range from chronic pain, autism and Alzheimer’s to artificial intelligence and nanotechnology. We’re doing whatever it takes — multidisciplinary research, rigorous academic programs and collaborations with top corporate and medical partners. For a closer look, visit utdallas.edu.

At Texas Oncology, our patients are as remarkable as our care. They’re part of a cancer-fighting community the size of Texas, with 420+ physicians, 175+ locations and thousands of patients on clinical trials. In fact, we care for more Texans with cancer than any other provider — including patients like Rodger. After cancer treatment, Rodger found strength and balance thanks to a horse named Dakota. See his story at TexasOncology.com/Rodger.

a message from THE PRESIDENT

Dear Symphony Friends,

I am delighted to welcome you to 36th season of the Plano Symphony Orchestra celebrating the Best of the Best! This season is a testament to our commitment to provide outstanding artistic programming year after year. We look forward to welcoming back several of our best loved guest artists, including The Five Browns, Broadway star Ashley Brown, and Grammy Award-winning Mariachi Los Camperos!

In addition to a stellar artistic season, the 2018-2019 season will be full of fun and meaningful social, educational, and service events for the entire community to experience, helping us fulfill our mission — to inspire, educate, entertain and involve the children, youth and adults of our community in the enjoyment of great music!

Our mission drives everything we do. As a leader in arts education, the Plano Symphony Orchestra reaches over 40,000 area youth annually through its EncoreYouth Music Programs, which include School Concerts, the Family Series, the Instrument Petting Zoo, the Collin County Young Artist Competition, as well as our scholarship program.

We also believe in the healing power of music. Through our Healing Notes program, our musicians perform regularly at retirement homes, Alzheimer’s centers, and other senior living facilities as well as at the John R. Roach Juvenile Detention Center in Collin County.

If you are not already involved with us, please consider this a personal invitation to join our symphony family. We are a community-minded group of music-lovers from all walks of life who support the Arts in Plano and throughout the North Texas area. While there are numerous ways to get involved, I especially encourage everyone to join our Guild, which is an invaluable part of engaging and connecting our symphony community.

Finally, we would love to welcome you at one of our premier fundraising events. In November, we will present our Debutantes at their elegant Debutante Ball. Then in March, we will host our annual Plano Symphony Orchestra Gala. This year’s theme is Crescendo! Music in Motion, and we hope to see you there for a night of fun and fundraising!

Warmest regards,
Erin K. Stewart
President, Plano Symphony Orchestra Board of Directors

Hector Guzman

Maestro Hector Guzman is regarded as one of the most respected and admired conductors in this country and abroad. His recent appointment as music director of the Corpus Christi Symphony Orchestra in May 2017 and his tenure as music director of the Plano Symphony, the Irving Symphony, the San Angelo Symphony, and as Conductor Emeritus of the Jalisco Philharmonic in Mexico, have placed him among the most important musical figures on the podium today. He has been a frequent guest conductor of an array of prestigious ensembles: Mexico: National Symphony, Mexico City Philharmonic, UNAM Philharmonic, Xalapa Symphony, Bellas Artes Chamber Orchestra, Vivaldi Orchestra of Mexico City, and State of Mexico Symphony. United States: Dallas Symphony, San Antonio Symphony, Wheeling Symphony, Phoenix Symphony, and the Chicago Sinfonietta. Dominican Republic: National Symphony. Czech Republic: Collegium Orchestra of Prague. Poland: Rszezow Philharmonic. Japan: Japan Philharmonic. South Korea: Masan Philharmonic, and Gangsam Symphony. Italy: Amadeus Orchestra, Sinfonia Venetto, Milano Classica Orchestra, Bari Symphony, San Remo Symphony, and Pomeriggi Musicale Orchestra of Milan. Spain: Sinfónica de Murcia, Joven Orquesta de la Comunidad de Madrid, and Excelentia Orchestra. Panamá: National Symphony, among many others.

In addition to a spectacular career as a conductor, he continues to enjoy international success as a concert organist, performing in venues such as the Meyerson Symphony Hall in Dallas, the Spivey Hall Distinguished Artist Series in Atlanta, the Olivet Nazarene recital series in Illinois, the cathedrals of Morelia, Guadalajara (Mexico) and Chartres (France), and the International Music Festivals in Toledo, Spain and Zamora, Mexico.

Maestro Guzman holds degrees from: The Conservatory of Music in Mexico City, the University of North Texas (BM), and Southern Methodist University (MM). His teachers include his mentor Anshel Brusilow, former concertmaster of the Philadelphia Orchestra and former music director of the Dallas Symphony, as well as internationally renowned conductors Helmuth Rilling (University of Oregon) and Carlo Maria Giulini (Accademia Chigiana in Siena, Italy). He was also a protégé of the late Maestro Eduardo Mata, music director of the Dallas Symphony. In his native Mexico, Hector Guzman achieved an impressive reputation as an organist, under Prof. Victor Urban, by taking first prize in the “Chamber Soloists” and the “Manuel M. Ponce” national organ competitions. In the United States, while a student of world famous master teachers Dr. Robert Anderson and Alfred Mouledous, he earned further distinction by winning solo competitions at Southern Methodist University, the University of North Texas, and he was the first Latin-American ever chosen as a finalist in the “Grand Prix de Chartres,” the world’s most prestigious international organ competition celebrated in France. He is also the recipient of the “Mozart Medal,” Mexico’s highest musical honor, presented by the embassy of Austria and the Mozart Academy in Mexico City, as well as the 2012 “Lifetime Achievement Award” of North Texas, and the 2014 Sigma Alpha Iota National Arts Associate award.

Two-time Grammy Award winner, Mariachi Los Camperos originated in 1961 by Natividad “Nati” Cano. Mr. Cano played a fundamental role in the development of mariachi music in the United States by training and mentoring new generations of mariachi musicians. The Mariachi “Giant” was a visionary leader that wanted to take the mariachi performance out of customary locations such as Cantinas and into concert halls where celebrities performed.

Nati Cano fulfilled his dream by presenting Los Camperos and performing at various casinos and other places where mariachis had never previously performed such as New York’s Carnegie Hall, Washington DC’s Lincoln Theater and many theaters alike.

In 1969, Mr. Cano opened the first ever Mariachi Dine and Show at “La Fonda Casa de Los Camperos” now known as a Landmark in Los Angeles, California. Today, mariachi restaurants all over the world are modeled after La Fonda.

Nati Cano passed away in 2014 and left Mariachi Los Camperos in good hands, having passed the leadership baton to the group’s longtime musical director, Jesus “Chuy” Guzman. Mr. Guzman, was Cano’s right-hand man for nearly three decades. Under Guzman’s direction, Los Camperos released a 2015 Grammy-nominated musical tribute to Nati called: Tradición, Arte, y Pasión. Mariachi Los Camperos continue to display and make effort to pass the mariachi tradition to a new generation of mariachi musicians in the United States and across the World. Mariachi Los Camperos de Nati Cano have recorded 12 albums, they have 4 Grammy nominations and have won 2 Grammy Awards:

- In 2005, they won a Grammy for the Best Musical Children Album Grammy for ¡cELLAbration!, A tribute to Ella Jenkins.
- In 2006, they were nominated for a Grammy for Best Regional Mexican Album; ¡Llegaron Los Camperos! (Smithsonian Folkways Recordings.)
• In 2008, they won a Grammy for Best Regional Mexican Album; Amor, Dolor y Lagrimas (Smithsonian Folkways Recordings.)

• In 2015, they were nominated for a Grammy for Best Regional Mexican Album; Tradición, Arte y Pasión (Smithsonian Folkways Recordings.)

Aside from nominations and Grammy Awards, Mariachi Los Camperos have received various Proclamations from Cities including: Los Angeles, Pico Rivera and San Fernando.

The National Endowment for the Arts have honored them in the folk and traditional arts, “The National Heritage Fellowship”.

In Mexico, they were awarded the prestigious “Sylvestre Vargas Award” for artistic excellence, and they were also presented with the “Galardon Mariachi Guadalajara”.

Mariachi Los Camperos have been a part of “El Encuentro Internacional del Mariachi y Charrería ” in Guadalajara, Jalisco Mexico since its initiation in 1994.

Lobbyist

You don’t have to be a high-powered lobbyist to call on Congress—just a healthcare professional who volunteers her time to prescribe a lifesaving message. American Heart Association advocates are part of a nationwide network of people dedicated to finding a cure for heart disease. They contact legislators to lobby for more funding for medical innovations, paving the way for lifesaving medical advances like new drugs to control high blood pressure and lower cholesterol, pacemakers and coronary bypass. Join us and you too can save lives from the nation’s No. 1 killer—heart disease.

THE VIRTUOSO SOCIETY

The Virtuoso Society is a special group of passionate and committed supporters of the Plano Symphony Orchestra. Members of the Virtuoso Society enjoy special recognition, a “Sneak Peek” at the coming new season, receptions with guest artists, an elegant annual Rotogravure dinner, a chance to sit in the Orchestra during a rehearsal, “Dinner Under the Stars” with the Maestro (Emerald Level of $2,500 annually), and more. For additional information on the Virtuoso Society, please call Jackie Fleming, Director of Development, at 972-473-7262 x27.

Despite our best efforts, the names of members are sometimes omitted or misspelled. We hope you will call the Plano Symphony at 972-473-7262 so that corrections can be made for the next book. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause and sincerely appreciate your generous and continued support for the Plano Symphony.

PLANNED GIVING RECOGNITION

A planned gift to the Plano Symphony Endowment will leave an enduring legacy of great music for your community. When funds are received they will be invested and managed by the Dallas Foundation on behalf of your Plano Symphony to ensure great music and education programs for generations to come.

With grateful thanks to Dr. George (Robbie) S. and Lynore Ward Robinson, Jr. for the inaugural planned gift to the Plano Symphony Orchestra. Others including the Plano Symphony in their estate planning: Ellie & Ira Barash, Sandy Nachman, Wanda & Cliff Parker, Robert Paton, Lindsey & Bruce Roberts

If you are planning a legacy gift to the Plano Symphony, we would be honored to include your name on this page. Call Jackie Fleming, Director of Development at 972-473-7262 x27 or email jfleming@planosymphony.org.

EVERY MEAL IS A PARTY: We’ve eaten at Bavarian Grill for special occasions and everyday dinners, and every experience is festive. Musicians perform spirited German songs inside every night and a few times a week in the beer garden. If it’s too early for live music, there are still lively tunes – recorded polkas, marches and drinking songs.

THE BIKE PATH. YOUR OFFICE. THE BACKYARD. The environment isn’t just some far off place. It’s the asphalt beneath your bike, the coffee that fuels your commute, and the park where you walk your dog. And it’s why the Natural Resources Defense Council is working to protect the most important places on Earth. For easy ways to help protect your environment, go to NRDC’s how-to website, SimpleSteps.org.
